Political Trick to Rob Governor of His Proper Credit.

BILLS SIDETRACKED

Columbus, Jan. 26.-It dawned on the Democrata today that the Republicans have worked a neat trick on ges; outside sentinel, Joseph Quinthem and Governor Harmon. The Republicans not only intend that the governor shall not make any more political hay, but they have stolen his pitchfork.

Here is the way they did it; they side-tracked the governor's two pet measures-his tax commission reform and his bill to centralize control of state institutions—and substituted their own bill for tax reform and got their chief reform measure, the Taft public utilities bill, before the people a full week in the lead,

And they have agreed that if ever Governor Harmon's two measures do come to a vote, they shall be killed in the senate.

They have taken out of Democratic hands all the investigations agitated

Mayor Speidel has named the members of the board of unsafe building should be introduced in the house should adjourn for a week, and that the senate should adjourn without the introduction of bills. But Harmon had put all of his reform measures in the hands of Senator Alsdorf for introduction in the senate.

Up to next Monday, of course, none of the my lise on the house been publishing the full text of the Republican reform measures in troduced in the house Monday.
